

ABOUT

SYDNEY BARRETT COLLINS

Sydney Collins is a licensed attorney with a primary focus on property law. She earned her Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from the University of Oklahoma in 2017 and went on to receive her Juris Doctor from the University of Oklahoma College of Law in 2021. Sydney is admitted to practice in all state and federal district courts in Oklahoma.

Currently, Sydney serves as legal counsel for the Oklahoma Department of Transportation (ODOT), where she handles a wide range of matters including condemnations, inverse condemnations, outdoor advertising appeals, quiet title actions, and administrative law issues. In addition to her legal responsibilities, she also manages ODOT's Business Administration Office, which oversees payment processing and tracking for all right-of-way and utility projects, as well as compliance with state and federal reporting requirements. Originally from East Texas, Sydney now resides in Oklahoma City with her husband and their two dogs.
